a. Following are the objectives of the Aligarh Movement started by Sir Syed Ahmed Khan in the 19th century in the subcontinent.

- To create an atmosphere of mutual understanding between the British government and the Muslims.
- To persuade Muslims to learn English education.
- To persuade Muslims to abstain from politics of agitation.
- To produce an intellectual class from amongst the Muslim community.
- To bring a social and cultural reform amongst the Muslim community.
- To maintain, and, as far as possible, promote the political and economic importance of Muslims in the affairs of the country to the extent that was possible in a country under foreign rule.

Analyse any FIVE contributions of Aligarh movement in light of the given objectives towards the establishment of Pakistan.

OR

b. It has always been taken for granted mistakenly that the Musalmans are a minority... The Mussalmans are not a minority. The Mussalmans are a nation by any definition... The Hindus and Muslims belong ... to two different civilizations which are based mainly on conflicting ideas and conceptions... To yoke together two such nations under a single state, one as a numerical minority and the other as a majority, must lead to growing discontent and final destruction of any fabric that may be so built up for the government of such state.'

Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah's Presidential address on the Lahore Resolution 1940

Analyse any FIVE reasons that led Mohammad Ali Jinnah to support the Lahore Resolution in 1940.
