Q.1. (Total 4 Marks)

Societies mainly work on the principle of give and take. In other words, sharing is inherent to human life. By sharing something with a person who is in dire need, you are starting a chain of good deeds which is bound to come back to you in some form or the other. Thus, the social ethic of sharing is crucial to meaningful interaction in society.

In light of the given passage, answer the following questions in your own words:

a. What are the TWO elements that one can share in society besides physical and material things? (2 Marks)

b. The central idea of the given passage is that 'sharing is crucial to meaningful social interaction'. Give a brief example from your own life to support this idea. (2 Marks)

Q.2. (Total 4 Marks)

Suggest any FOUR ways by which humans can preserve wildlife.

Q.3.

(Total 2 Marks)

Explain an incident from your life in which your negative attitude was changed through inspiration from someone else's positive behaviour.

Q.4.

(Total 4 Marks)

Identify any FOUR components that contribute to a person's self-respect.
