Preface

Established in 2002 through the Pakistan government's ordinance, the Aga Khan University Examination Board (AKU-EB) is country's first private autonomous qualification awarding body for secondary (SSC) and higher secondary (HSSC) school certifications. Its vision is to be a model of excellence and innovation in education in Pakistan and the developing world.

AKU-EB achieves its vision by developing examination syllabi which inculcate conceptual thinking and higher order learning and are aligned with National/ trans-provincial curricula and international standards. AKU-EB revises its syllabi periodically to support the needs of students, teachers and examiners.

The aims of the syllabus review of SSC and HSSC are to:

- Ensure continued compatibility with the goals of the trans-provincial curricula of Pakistan.
- Review the content for inclusion of new knowledge and deletion of obsolete knowledge.
- Review the content for clarity and relevance as per the changing needs of students, teachers and examiners.
- Enhance and strengthen continuation and progression of content both within and across grades IX - XII (SSC and HSSC).
- Ensure the readiness of students for higher education.

During the syllabus review, the needs of all the stakeholders were identified through a needs-assessment survey. Students and teachers of AKU-EB affiliated schools from across Pakistan participated in the survey. Thereafter, a revision panel, which consisted of examiners, teachers of affiliated and non-affiliated schools, teacher trainers and university academicians, reviewed and revised the syllabus following a planned, meticulous and standardised syllabi review process.

The syllabus is organised into topics and subtopics. Each subtopic is further divided into achievable student learning outcomes (SLOs). The SLOs of the cognitive domain are each assigned a cognitive level on which they have to be achieved. These cognitive levels are 'knowledge', 'understanding' and 'application', the latter also including other higher order skills. This is followed by the Exam Specification which gives clear guidance about the weightage of each topic and how the syllabus will be assessed.

The development of the revised syllabus has been made possible by the creativity and relentless hard work of Curriculum and Examination Development unit and the constant support provided by all the other units of AKU-EB. We are particularly thankful to Dr Sohail Qureshi for his very useful feedback on revising the syllabus review process, to Dr Naveed Yousuf for his continued guidance and support throughout the syllabus revision process and to Raabia Hirani for leading the syllabi revision. We are also thankful to all the students and teachers who took part in the needs-assessment survey and to the principals of AKU-EB affiliated schools who made this endeavour possible by facilitating and encouraging their teachers to be a part of the survey and the syllabus revision panel.

With your support and collective hard work, AKU-EB has been able to take the necessary steps to ensure effective implementation of the best international and trans-provincial standards through this syllabus. We are confident that this syllabus will continue to provide the support that is needed by students to progress to the next level of education and we wish the very best to our students and teachers in implementing this syllabus.

Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Aga Khan University Examination Board

Associate Professor of Practice, Faculty of Arts and Sciences, Aga Khan University

Understanding of AKU-EB Syllabi

1. The AKU-EB syllabi guide the students, teachers, parents and other stakeholders regarding the topics that will be taught and examined in each grade (IX, X, XI and XII). In each syllabus document, the content progresses from simple to complex, thereby, facilitating a gradual, conceptual learning of the content.
2. The topics of the syllabi are divided into subtopics and student learning outcomes (SLOs). The subtopics and the SLOs define the depth and the breadth at which each topic will be taught, learnt and examined. The syllabi also provide enabling SLOs where needed to scaffold student learning.
3. Each SLO starts with an achievable and assessable command word such as describe, relate, evaluate, etc. The purpose of the command words is to direct the attention of teachers and students to specific tasks that the students are expected to undertake in the course of their studies. The examination questions are framed using the same command words or their connotations to elicit evidence of these competencies in students' responses.
4. The topics of the syllabi are grouped into themes derived from the National/ trans-provincial curricula. The connection between various themes and topics is highlighted in the 'concept map' provided at the beginning of each syllabus. This ensures that students begin to understand the interconnectedness of knowledge, learn conceptually and think critically.
5. The SLOs are classified under three cognitive levels: knowledge (K), understanding (U) and application and other higher order skills (A) for effective planning during teaching and learning. Furthermore, it will help to derive multiple choice questions (MCQs), constructed response questions (CRQs) and extended response questions (ERQs) on a rational basis from the subject syllabi.
6. By focusing on the achievement of the SLOs, these syllabi aim to counter the culture of rote memorisation as the preferred method of examination preparation. While suggesting relevant, locally available textbooks for achieving these outcomes, AKU-EB recommends that teachers and students use multiple teaching and learning resources for achieving these outcomes.
7. The syllabi follow a uniform layout for all subjects to make them easier for students and teachers to follow. They act as a bridge between students, teachers and assessment specialists by providing a common framework of student learning outcomes and exam specifications.
8. On the whole, the AKU-EB syllabi for Secondary School Certificate (SSC) provide a framework that helps students to acquire conceptual understanding and learn to critically engage with it. This lays a solid foundation for HSSC and beyond.

Subject Rationale of AKU-EB Ethics

Why study AKU-EB Ethics?

Ethics is the basis of everyday life; be it personal or professional. The core reason behind teaching ethics is to inculcate a conscious approach to critically think about the problems faced by society. Ethics as a discipline encourages students to reflect on the moral and ethical practices prevalent in the society as well as comparison of different religions in terms of their approach towards ethical standards for the smooth running of the society.

Ethics as a discipline makes an individual aware of other religions being practiced around them and how their teachings are similar towards humanity. Moreover, it also helps in bringing to light the logic and reasoning behind different rituals and practices of different religions. This enables a person to develop a level of understanding and tolerance towards other religious groups which is fundamental to the development of the society.

Further, the discipline not only caters to theories but also brings in live examples of personalities (social and religious) in order to convey a message that the practices (moral and ethical) are not impossible to accomplish, they can be adopted in one's life and this in turn makes an individual's life fulfilling.

Education is not only to achieve qualifications and degrees, it is also a medium which makes us differentiate between right and wrong, upholds other individuals' integrity and live our lives in a manner that we are beneficial to the people, community and society. Ethics as a discipline tries to achieve the said goal of education. Yet, if one wants to study comparative religions, the discipline of Ethics will act as a foundation stone.

How to approach the syllabus?

The concept map of the syllabus gives an overview of the entire syllabus. The topics and the student learning outcomes (SLOs) guide regarding the details about what has to be achieved. And finally, the exam specification guides regarding what will be expected in the examination.

What is the concept map telling you?

The struggle for man in life is to conduct oneself in such a manner that his actions are acceptable and justified in terms of ethical behaviour. This is depicted in the concept map as bridge, the person has to cross whenever he/ she is performing any action. The journey of the subject begins by the approach to link theology with that of philosophy as all of the tenets of ethical behaviours are evolved from these branches.

Moreover, theology is the basis of all of the major religions being practiced in Pakistan, the basic knowledge of these religions helps us understand human actions and behaviours and make one realise that the values practiced in a society though are evolved from different religions but are all the same.

These behaviours are adopted and manifested in lives of different personalities, who have left a deep-rooted impact by means of their dedication towards humanity. Learning about their work, lives and how they have changed the society they have lived in, gives an individual encouragement that following ethical values and principles may look tough but it yields a better result for not just an individual but for the society.
